Colton Mullinax attended our 2018 GO 4 THE SHOW winter mini-camp. This was a FREE camp in which we conducted a FREE Evaluation and setup a FREE Player Profile for each player attending as part of our tryouts for an affiliated elite Fall 18 Open team (Southwest Showcase) playing colleges.

Out of 25 prospects trying out, Colton graded out as our Top Prospect with an MLB 20-80 score of 40 overall. Traditionally, we have seen that prospects graded by our College & MLB Scouts with a 40+ MLB score have been effective middle to Major College scholarship recipients, usually NCAA DI. Colton was also selected to play on our 2018 Oklahoma All-Star Fall-State 18 Open State Championship team in which Colton had several timely key hits and clutch rangy defensive putouts that were instrumental in winning this championship and getting state rings.

Colton not only comes from 1 of the Top Nationally Ranked baseball programs in the nation (Owasso High School in Oklahoma), but Colton has faced some of the toughest pitching on this planet getting hits off Nate Woglemuth in inner-squad games. Nate Woglemuth (Colton's Owasso HS teammate) is projected to go early rounds of the 2020 MLB draft Pitching 94+ mph and has been considered top-ranked arm in the nation. That exposure alone makes Colton battle tested and able to step right into any college program and be an immediate contributor to your team's success.

Colton has "The Look", as well as all the Tools with plus Speed and a true Utility player with great range. Colton's video shows Pitching game action including his exceptional pickoff move getting runners and his ability to mix pitches, location and speeds keeping batters off rhythm.

Colton is a diamond in the ruff that would be a starter at most other High Schools #2 on depth chart at 2nd Base behind Jack Hammond, who is a DI commit to Kansas University (Jayhawks) . Many Owasso non-starters have gone on to be strong college and professional players, as Colton will be.

Beyond Colton's pure talent, his story gets even better. Colton is a selfless teammate and he has regularly volunteered to help other amateur baseball athletes by assisting to run camps in the community.

GO 4 THE SHOW highly recommends Colton Mullinax to strengthen your college program on and off the field. Colton ranks in the Top 20% of the 60 plus prospects to date we have helped obtain college scholarships.

Please feel free to contact me in regards to anything you may wish to discuss on Colton Mullinax.
