To Whom It May Concern:

It is with much enthusiasm that I am writing this personal recommendation for my former student, and current player Colt Gniech. Colt has shown that he knows to be successful it takes hard work. I have no doubts that Colt will achieve whatever he wants to in life because he will not settle for anything less than that.

Colt possesses a maturity and focus that far exceeds those of most students his age. Colt loves baseball, but understands that being a student athlete that student comes first. In my class, he was always involved in class discussions and sat in the first row closest to me.

Colt is a kid that knows the game inside and out, as he understands situations like an extra coach on the field. He has pursued pitching and I believe that is where his future is in college. In saying that he possesses the talent to play the field as well, and could should he pursue that route. He is a college pitcher right now, and I can't wait to see where he is in 2-3 more years of learning and getting stronger.

Please contact me at the email or phone number listed if there is any other information I can provide.

Sincerely,

James Miner
